White Wines

	glass	bottle
Night Harvest Chardonnay	$5.00	$19.00
Nice ripe apple and pear. No oak on this one!
* Valley of the Moon Pinot Blanc	$7.00	$26.00
Thai wine for Thai food! Light bodied and semi-dry, this blend has great acidity with notes of citrus and a melony character up front. Perfect for Thai salads and spicy lime-based dishes.
* Monsoon Valley, Blended White [Thailand]	$7.50	$28.00
Good, fresh mineral aromas with peachy, nectarine flavors.
Monkey Bay Sauvignon Blanc	$5.50	$21.00
Fresh, crisp and clean citrus flavors on a bright, lively finish.
* Hogue Riesling	$5.50	$21.00
Semi sweet floral aromas with honey suckle flavors.

Red Wines

	glass	bottle
* Monsoon Valley, Blended Red [Thailand]	$7.50	$28.00
Blended mainly from the indigenous Thai grape, Pokdum, this soft textured wine is subtle with hints of red berries ending in an earthy and peppery finish. Recommended with duck dishes !
Jacob's Creek Shiraz	$5.00	$19.00
Nice blackberry fruit with a spicy finish.
* Robert Mondavi Pinot Noir	$5.50	$21.00
Soft cherry flavors with a smooth, easy finish.
* Fleur Pinot Noir, Carneros	$7.50	$27.00
Nice black cherry and truffle -- medium bodied.
Kenwood Merlot	$5.50	$21.00
Good, mellow blueberry and vanilla notes.
* Hayman & Hill Zinfandel	$7.00	$26.00
Nice zesty, jammy raspberry and spice; soft tannins.
